"Locally owned family operation. We'll support that until they give us a reason not to... Unpretentious and straight forward. Our second visit to this neighborhood spot. Nice place" Open Table Diner

"They have great burgers, and it is a very quick place to go for lunch. The food is very cheap, burger and a coke run you about $10 out the door with tip. The food is slightly above average, but given that it costs about $3 more than fast food I would much rather go here. Hoping to have a large happy hour there soon, curious to see how it goes. They have great group specials." Urbanspoon Review
